15	Conspiracy to Commit Bank Fraud
16	Date of Detention Hearing: April 18, 2006
17	The Court, having conducted a detention hearing pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3142(f), and
18	based upon the factual findings and statement of reasons for detention hereafter set forth, finds
19	that no condition or combination of conditions which defendant can meet will reasonably assure
20	the appearance of defendant as required and the safety of other persons and the community.
21	FINDINGS OF FACT AND STATEMENT OF REASONS FOR DETENTION

defendants. The defendants are alleged to have stolen checks from the mail, altered them, and deposited or cashed the checks at various financial institutions.

- (2) Defendant's criminal history includes convictions for possession of stolen property, forgery, harassment and assault in the 4th degree. Defendant is currently on state court supervision and in non-compliance for failing to report and to obtain an anger evaluation. There is an active warrant from Pierce County and a previous warrant from Renton for failure to appear.
- (3) Defendant was born in the Phillippines. Defendant was not interviewed by Pretrial Services. There is no additional information available regarding his personal history, residence, family ties, ties to this district, income, financial assets or liabilities, physical/mental health or controlled substance use, if any.
 - (4) Defendant does not contest detention.
- (5) Defendant poses a risk of nonappearance because of unverified background ties, a history of failing to appear, his status on state court supervision, and an active bench warrant. He poses a risk of danger due to criminal history and the nature of the current charges.
- (6) There does not appear to be any condition or combination of conditions that will reasonably assure the defendant's appearance at future Court hearings while addressing the danger to other persons or the community.

It is therefore ORDERED:

(1) Defendant shall be detained pending trial and committed to the custody of the Attorney General for confinement in a correction facility separate, to the extent practicable, from persons awaiting or serving sentences or being held in custody pending appeal;

(2) Defendant shall be afforded reasonable opportunity for private consultation with counsel;

- On order of a court of the United States or on request of an attorney for the Government, the person in charge of the corrections facility in which defendant is confined shall deliver the defendant to a United States Marshal for the purpose of an appearance in connection with a court proceeding; and
- (4) The clerk shall direct copies of this Order to counsel for the United States, to counsel for the defendant, to the United States Marshal, and to the United States Pretrial Services Officer.

DATED this 18th day of April, 2006.

Mary Alice Theiler

United States Magistrate Judge
